

KIK JUN CHENG

ABOUT ME

I am Kik Jun Cheng, a graduate of Nanyang Polytechnic (NYP) with a Diploma in Infocomm & Media Engineering. I am a motivated and disciplined IT professional with a strong foundation in programming and software development. I have a genuine interest in building meaningful digital solutions and enjoy turning ideas into practical, real-world applications.

I am eager to apply the skills and knowledge I have gained throughout my studies, while continuously learning and growing through hands-on experience.
